Annual Meeting, May 28 – June 2, 2023, San Francisco, CA

Presentation Submissions / Appearance Release / Personal Data

The nature and mission of the Society for the Preservation of Natural History Collections (“SPNHC”) include the goal of reaching as broad an audience as possible. By registering for the SPNHC 2023 Annual Meeting and/or participating in any of its associated workshops, panels, fieldtrips, social events or other activities (collectively, the “Meeting”), all SPNHC members, speakers, staff, volunteers, exhibitors, and attendees of the Meeting (collectively “Participants”) agree and acknowledge to the following:

SPNHC 2023 Annual Meeting Abstracts and Presentations

SPNHC values its Participants’ adherence to ethical standards and professional behavior. Authors of presentations and workshops are expected to maintain the highest standards of scientific attribution and citation in their presentations and other submitted materials. All authors affiliated with a Meeting presentation and associated abstract must be aware of and agree with the information presented. Obtaining consent from all authors to be associated with the presentation is the responsibility of the lead and presenting author(s) (see Participant representations below).

An author who submits an abstract for presentation at the Meeting must have the intention of registering, attending, and presenting at the Meeting, either in person or virtually when applicable. Authors must abide by all submission deadlines, presentation time limits, and/or other format-related instructions provided by the Meeting’s organizers.

Appearance Release

Participant grants SPNHC and the SPNHC 2023 Annual Meeting Host, the California Academy of Sciences (the “Academy”), permission to use Participant’s name, and logo if applicable, in SPNHC and Academy marketing and promotional materials and otherwise to identify Participant as having participated in the Meeting.

Participant agrees that SPNHC and Academy may photograph and videotape Participant at the Meeting, and use the materials, including abstracts, slides, posters, images and recordings of Participant (collectively, the “Materials”), for noncommercial, educational, marketing, and promotional purposes. Participant waives any and all rights that Participant may have in connection with such materials, including but not limited to trademark rights, rights of publicity, and rights of privacy. SPNHC and Academy agree to promote the Meeting on their websites, in social media outlets, and in SPNHC and Academy publications. SPNHC and Academy shall have the right to use Participant's name in connection with such promotion.

Participant represents that he/she/they are the owner of the Materials or otherwise has the rights to grant the permissions hereunder. Participant further represents that, to the best of his/her/their knowledge, the Materials do not infringe any copyrights or other proprietary rights of third parties.

Participants may not take photographs or video during the Meeting that may be disruptive to presenters (flash, shutter sounds, distracting presence, etc.).

Personal Data

During the Meeting and its registration process, SPNHC and the Academy may need to collect a Participant's personally identifiable information. SPNHC and Academy will use your personal data exclusively for the purposes of the Meeting registration, organization, and communication with Meeting organizers. SPNHC and Academy may also contact you about future meetings or community events that may be of interest to Participant. All Participants can opt out of receiving such communications at any time. SPNHC and Academy will share your personal data with third parties only to the extent necessary for such third parties to carry out the above purposes on behalf of SPNHC and the Academy.
